Our school

Which school do you attend and which subjects do you like?

I am a student of the secondary school of business and services. The school is situated in Ostrava - Poruba. Secondary school education programme lasts for four years and students can choose own specialization. There are lots of branches at our school - hairstylists, cosmeticians, massage therapists, photographers, dressmakers and clothes designers, businessmen.

My favourite subject is English / German / Czech / maths / PE / music / art and design / history / geography / science / ICT / chemistry / economics / accounting / typing / business correspondence / law / professional-specialized subjects.

How long are lessons and what do students do in breaks?

We usually start our lessons at 8 a.m. but sometimes at 7 a.m. and on other days at 9 or 10 a.m. Each class lasts forty-five minutes and there is a ten or five minute break in between. After the fourth lesson there is a twenty-minute break when students have a snack or lunch.

Do you prefer oral or written form of tests and exams?

I prefer written tests to oral exams because I hate standing in front of the whole class. Moreover, in written tests there is more time for thinking and you may concentrate more on the answers. / I prefer oral exam because I like communication.....
