4. Read the info from Canadian embassy web page and answer the questions below:

How to Apply for Your Temporary Resident Visa

Once you have checked that you need a temporary resident visa (transit, tourism, business, etc.), please follow these steps to submit a complete application:

1. Check the processing times
Find out how long it takes to process a standard visa application at this office so that you will know how far in advance to apply. Earliest possible time for application should not be more than six months before your planned entry to Canada.
2. Read the instruction guide and complete the on-line application form, validate and print
The instruction guide contains important information about temporary resident visas and instructions to help you complete your application. Read the guide carefully and use the document checklist. The completed application MUST include the barcode page. Your application may be returned or refused if you do not provide all the requested information, documents and fees.
3. Pay the processing fee
Please refer to the fee schedule for the cost of a temporary resident visa and how to pay. Please note that the processing fee is non-refundable in all cases.
4. Submit your application and supporting documents
Submit your application package (forms and supporting documents) according to the guidelines for submitting an application.

All supporting documents must be submitted at the time of your application. Such documents must provide evidence of a) significant ties to your country of residence; and b) funds available for your return trip and stay in Canada.

Questions:

Do you need a visa for going there as a tourist? Yes.

When should you apply for the visa? 6 months efore the trip

Will you have to pay any money for the visa? Yes, there is a fee.

In case of cancelling the trip, will you get your money back? No, in no case.
